

Dual Tamper Head

Dual Tamper Head

An innovative approach to tie tamping using little or no track time utilizing the proven reliability and latest technology that is provided in a John Deere excavator. The excavator is equipped with a hydraulic package to meet the requirements of the Tamper attachment. Equipment can swing out of the way in high traffic areas to allow trains to pass without interruption.

Single tamper head model also available